Berry and Vera Lee Clanton have been active members of San Francisco’s African American community and members of the Third Baptist Church USA, Inc, for over fifty years. Through their involvement with various religious and community organizations, on the local, district, state, national and international levels, the Clantons exemplify people who have enriched their community by touching many lives through their dedicated service and involvement. They are a prime example of how each of us can have community involvement while leading busy, yet effective lives.

In establishing the Berry and Vera Lee Clanton Endowed Scholarship Fund, Mrs. Vera Lee Clanton hopes to provide guidance, leadership, and support for students in their pursuit of higher learning at San Francisco State University. It is her desire that upon graduating from SFSU, they will take with them not only a world-class education, but also a commitment to acknowledging and learning from the past while living fully in the present.

It is further intended that the Fund shall celebrate and maintain the connection between SFSU and the Bay Area’s diverse communities.
