J.F. Oberlin University is a private co-educational institution of over 8,000 students located in the Tokyo suburb of Machida. The J.F. Oberlin campus is a gathering place for people whose thinking transcends national, regional, and cultural differences. In addition to its international atmosphere, J.F. Oberlin also prides itself on its attractive campus architecture, high-tech classrooms, and wireless Internet access, allowing students and educators to exchange information on a real-time basis with their counterparts in other schools and organizations throughout the world.

The Reconnaissance Japan Program

The Reconnaissance Japan Program is an academic program for international students who wish to learn about, and personally experience, Japan. The program offers Japanese language skills and training courses from the introductory to advanced levels. A wide variety of culture and civilization courses on Japan taught in English are also offered each semester. Students will be placed in one of six different levels in the core Japanese program, depending on previous study and the results of a placement exam given during the orientation, which will determine coursework.
