February 16, 2012

Dear Students,

I attended San Francisco State in the mid-60's and know how much student activism is at the heart of social change. No one is happy about the recent budget cuts to higher education and as a former teacher; I understand the difficulties caused by the rising tuition and fees that continue to affect you and your families. The time for action is now and the politicians in Sacramento need to continue to hear your voices loud and clear.

I stand in solidarity with you and will continue to advocate for increased funding to the CSU system at the State Capitol. Thank you for sharing your stories on the consequences of the budget cuts; with your help we will restore California's education system.

Sincerely,
